TOPIC: HOLIDAY PARTY

DISCUSSION	It was reported the Holiday Party was a success. Members stated they liked the venue, the Bloomsday Office, and they enjoyed the DJ, music, dancing, and raffle. There was a suggestion that if we hold the party there again, the rooms be switched for the food and dancing. That way, there would more room for the banquet, and the room for dancing would be more intimate. It was reported several Bloomsday Board members said we could hold the party there again in the future.

TOPIC: RRCA NATIONAL CONVENTION- SPOKANE 2014

DISCUSSION	Paul Gill requested Joan transfer $10,000 to the Convention account, as was approved at the 08/08/13 General Meeting. Paul stated his name was recently added to this subaccount at STCU. It was recommended $5,000 be taken out of the general fund and $5,000 be taken out of the tax fund. Paul stated he was working on putting committees together for the Convention. He also stated the RRCA is taking a bigger role in organizing the Convention this year than in the past. There was a question as to how much it will cost Club members to attend the Convention. It was suggested Paul look into the option of splitting up registrations so people can attend some sessions at a discounted cost.

TOPIC: RACE SERIES

DISCUSSION	Paul stated as far as he knows, all of the races (except for the Autism Run) that were a part of the Series in 2013 will also be in the Series in 2014. He stated the first race of the Series is the Frostbite Run on January 25, 2014. Paul stated participation in the Series was up this past year. He stated he needs more people to email him their race results as most of our races are chip timed and no longer have tags. It was suggested including a box on the Active.com registration so people can indicate if they want their results to be included in the Series.
