TOPIC: MANITO RUNNING CLUB

DISCUSSION	Several members of the Manito Running Club provided information about their group and requested to become members under the BRRC. Manito Running Club has grown and recognizes a need for insurance. The club was formed 6 years ago by Jody Shapiro and Mike Weibner. They currently have 40-50 active members. Their goals are to get faster and build friendships. They have Saturday runs and speed workouts on Sunday, and occasionally gather for social events. They requested they be able to keep their website (manitorun.net), logo, and Facebook page. They stated they would add the BRRC logo to their website and accept our bylaws. The representatives stated they would provide volunteers for Club races and promote our runs. It was recommended if Manito put on any races in the future, they would need the approval from the BRRC. It was recommended Manito have a representative attend the BRRC General Meetings. It was also recommended several BRRC representatives meet with Manito to have a plan of action for uniting. Paul, Brenda, Will, and Lori agreed to form a subcommittee to meet with Manito.

TOPIC: BLOOMSDAY TRADESHOW BOOTH

DISCUSSION	Pat Trout will organize our booth. Our booth is in a different location this year-space #818 and #820. Pat is looking for suggestions for a theme or decorations for the booth. Gunhild stated she would like to display the Strides of March map and her globe, and have sign-up sheets available to increase participation in this program. It was also decided we will have drawings for races for those who sign up for membership at the tradeshow. Dori requested we stipulate on the free race entries that there is no day-of-race registration, due to the increased costs of mailing shirts.

TOPIC: 2013 BUDGET

DISCUSSION	Race revenue was increased from the previous year. It was reported our Money Market account has been designated as our tax fund in the event we have to pay sales tax on our races. The Youth Running Committee is comprised of Paul (head), Dori, Lori, Joan, Frank, and Kurt. To request funds is a process of several days, and must be done by emailing Paul. The budget for this fund is $1,500. Dori stated

TOPIC: RACE DIRECTOR'S MEETING

DISCUSSION	A meeting was recently held, with most of the race directors attending. The main topics discussed were: 1. timeliness in regards to payment of bills; 2. development of a race budget template; 3. CPR/AED training. Chris Coffield of Rogers High School is certified in AED and American Red Cross, and has offered to provide the training at the School. The cost is $350 for 10 people. There was a motion to require Race Directors to have this training, and for the Club to pay the related costs. A motion was passed to spend up to $400.00 for this training. After Race Directors have signed up, the training will be opened up to Club members. Preference will be given to those members who regularly volunteer at the finish line.
