TOPIC: LIABILITY WAIVERS

DISCUSSION	The importance of having participants sign waivers at all club-sponsored events was discussed. Joan agreed to print the waivers, and to keep signed waivers for 7 years. There was also a discussion about having an incentive for people to sign in for these events, such as receiving a t-shirt after completing a certain number of runs. A person-in-charge was identified for the following Club activities:
	Sunday Slugs- Pat Trout Monday group run- Sue Fitzpatrick Speed work- John Pierce

	Wednesday group run- Max Bischoff Saturday group run- Sue Fitzpatrick & Frank Anselmo A back-up PIC for each event will also need to be identified, and he/she will also need to have blank copies of waivers.

TOPIC: RRCA NATIONAL CONVENTION

DISCUSSION	Paul Gill reported Meb Keflezighi will be the keynote speaker at the 2013 RRCA convention in Albuquerque, and so is not an option for the 2014 convention. Paul stated he was looking at options for other speakers. Paul also passed around a copy of the ad for the 2014 convention. This ad was produced free of charge by the Spokane Regional Sports Commission. Paul also stated Brandon Butler of Mead High School was in the process of putting together a video for the convention, which will highlight Bloomsday and the Davenport Hotel, and will have an introduction by Don Kardong. Paul stated he was getting bids for the Saturday dinner at Arbor Crest.

TOPIC: INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

DISCUSSION	Paul Fitzpatrick presented a revised version of the policy, based on feedback he had received. There was a suggestion to condense the policy by moving the margins and/or changing the font so it fits on 1 page. There was a decision to include the last paragraph on all future Club race entry forms. It was also decided the policy should be printed in the Race Rag. It was suggested a copy of the policy be posted at all race registrations. A motion to accept these changes was approved.

TOPIC: BRRC WEBSITE

DISCUSSION	Jim Hoppe stated he received an email from a local website development company, wanting to revise our website. Jim stated he can make some changes to the BRRC home page to "clean it up." Will expressed an interest in helping Jim make changes to the website, and they agreed to work together on this project. It was also stated some members of the MRC have web experience, and they might be willing to help us with updating our website. A decision was made to not hire a company to update our website at this time. Paul Gill stated our website will have to include information about the RRCA convention in the near future. Paul stated the RRCA has a template we can use for this task.
